

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision is to air
an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election.
This is a clear
example of the dangers of media
consolidation.

Sinclair uses our public airwaves, and
is obligated by law
to serve the public interest. But when large companies
control the
airwaves, we get what's good for the bottom line and less
of what we need for
our democracy.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to be restructured.

I urge you to prevent Sinclair
from broadcasting
this blatantly one
sided political
diatribe.
